

Peterson's system were too low to prove he was impaired. "Criminalists won't even testify when it's that low of an amount," Garza said.

about 3 p.m. April 11, just after Mountain View High School ended classes.

It carried him about 40 feet until the SUV hit a pole just mitted to prosecutors because his client was suffering medical problems at the time.

A varsity swimmer and popular student, Adams' death reached for comment.

CONTACT WRITER:
(480) 898-6573
or ggrado@aztrib.com

GET BACK IN GILBERT

TORU KAWANA, TRIBUNE

BLAST FROM PAST: Members of AZ Beats, from left, Glenn Iwata as Billy Preston, Ken Howard as Paul McCartney, James Lus as John Lennon, Tom Nutty as George Harrison and, behind Nutty, Laurie Lus as Ringo Starr, play a collection of Beatles songs on the roof of Rock City Cafe in Gilbert. They are re-enacting the Beatles' last live performance in London on Jan. 30, 1969.

"I absolutely think it would be a good idea to have an arts venue. I think that's a good location for something."

NANCY GENYS - ARTS ADVISORY BOARD MEMBER

Gilbert planning small arts venue

Center proposed for 8 vacant acres downtown

By BETH LUCAS
TRIBUNE

piece of property.

"It's not going to be anything like Mesa's (art center), it won't be that big," said Mayor Steve Berman, who with Councilman Steve Urie asked that the topic be discussed at the Feb. 7 Town

Urie and Councilman Don Skousen both suggest that $600,000 the town will receive for selling its first Mormon chapel on the northeast corner of Gilbert and Elliot roads be used as seed money toward the arts center. Nonprofit art said she looks forward to the town offering land for an arts facility.

"I absolutely think it would be a good idea to have an arts venue," Genys said. "I think that's a good location for something."